THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST - 'C'

FIRST READING

Genesis 14: 18-20

This short piece is from the account of Abraham's victories over the Canaanite kings. Melchizedek, (the name means king of righteousness) king of Jerusalem, probably chief among the Canaanite kings, makes peace with Abraham by offering the bread and wine of friendship and acknowledges Abraham's God as creator. Abraham reciprocates by offering him a tenth part of all the booty taken.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 11: 23-26

In giving the body and blood of his sacrifice, Jesus provides nourishment for the health and vitality of his body, the Church. This 'remembrance' was not merely of the past action of Jesus in giving up his body and blood but was a call to the rich members of the Church at Corinth to remember themselves with their less fortunate brothers and sisters who also belonged to the Body of Christ.

GOSPEL

Luke 9: 11-17

This gospel passage gives an insight into how Jesus saw his work of bringing in the Kingdom; preaching, healing, yes, but also sharing food with those to whom he preached and those he healed. While the account of the multiplication of the loaves is heavily overlaid with Eucharistic connotations, it is clear that Jesus' understanding of the bringing in of the Kingdom involved sharing food with those to whom he preached and those who had been healed.
